FORBIDDEN TO WORK SUNDAY

Ban Placed on Various Tradesmen and Laborers by Old British Laws, Seldom Obeyed.

Now and again we read of a tradesman who, to help his own pocket and oblige certain customers, opens his place of business on Sunday and trades. Some tradesmen have been summoned and fined scores of times, according to London Answers.

The Lord's day observances act forbids—the selection—any tradesman, workman, artificer or laborer to work on Sunday, except for works of charity or necessity. Further, the above four classes are not to use any boat, or large, or sell goods, cooked food excepted, under a penalty of 5 shillings.

If a horse dealer sells a horse on Sunday he cannot, in law, sue for its price; but if neither party to the equine transaction is a horse dealer, then the contract is perfectly good!

And if any ordinary trader sells goods on a Sunday in the ordinary way of his business he cannot only be summoned, but if he has given credit he cannot sue the purchaser! If, however, the purchaser keeps the Sunday-bought goods, and afterward—on a week day—promises to pay for them, then he can, on default, be sued.

But—a wonderful act—farmers, attorneys, surgeons, cab drivers, coach proprietors and Jews are exempt. Why the act, which we see broken in hundreds of places each Sunday, is not often invoked, is because proceedings cannot be taken without the written consent of the chief constable of the district, two J. P.'s, or a stipendiary magistrate.

Many decline to move in the matter. Otherwise, tradesmen, workmen, artificers and laborers would have a hot time. Professional men would be exempt.

NOISE HARSH AND CONSTANT

Impossible for Any One to Escape From the Din That Marks Modern City Life.

They say that a canary bird intended by nature to live in the quiet woods suffers constant torture while in captivity from the harsh noises all around it.

But before the Antieruelty society starts in to turn loose all canaries for that reason it might take up the case of its own ears, writes "Girard" in the Philadelphia Press.

The motor boat on the stream and the airplane in the sky, the auto horn's piercing scream and the choo-choo rushing by, are only a few of the ear-drum savagery which put us all in a class with the bird in the gilded cage. And especially that auto horn.

There seems to be keen rivalry among dealers to market the horn that can split the most ears, as you can see by a few ads which I quote:

"Loudest signal of its kind."
"Has the quick, snappy shriek."
"Clears the way half a mile ahead."
"It makes the pedestrian jump."
"Joins the air with a threat of danger."
"Has a piercing get-out-of-the-way sound."

Young Men!
Let Us Dress You.
It Pays to be Dressed Well.

THE BABY

You can make up a complete stork outfit from our splendid line of Baby things. Baby Bands, Booties, Pinning Blankets, Reuben Shirts, Knitted Silk Caps and Bonnets, Cashmere Hosiery, Dainty Dresses, Flannel Shirts. Your older boy can be furnished with a Cashmere Coat, a Carriage Blanket, a doll and a bear or a rattle. All these things are purchased from house that sells only baby's things and they are just as nice as if they came from any of the large HIGH COST OF LIVING department stores in the city.

WARNER CORSETS

We are taking our medicine cheerfully

Like all other stores we purchased gingham and outing flannels months ago at the high market. They have been rushed to us by the jobber with greater speed than was ever known in former seasons. Why? Because the jobbers knew months ago that the market would break.

We are selling our gingham based on the present market and not on the prices we bought at months ago. This means a loss of ten cents a yard on all the gingham and outtings received for the fall business.

Gingham bought to sell at 50c will be sold at 38c. Outing flannels and other cotton staples are reduced in proportion.

BE A CREDIT TO YOURSELF

A young man is not well dressed simply because he wears a silk shirt, flashy socks and a loud suit of clothes. No matter what price those things are they do not make a well dressed young man.

Most older people consider a young man well dressed if his clothes are of moderately fashionable cut, his socks, neckties, and shirts of just sensible in color; kept as tho they were new.

It is not our business to cater to the flashy youth but we have a certain pride in seeing a young man go away from our store with the apparel that will make him appear well dressed.

Our terms, our prices and our dealings are based on service

SWEATERS

They still call them sweaters; but they are really yarn creations this season. All the various combinations of colors, all the stitches, all the lengths of different styles; the novelty sleeves. In fact a sweater this season is simply a dressy garment for beauty's sake.

Our store has marked them at a very close margin. Price them here, price them in the city. We know you will come back.
